Presenting an opportunity to embrace award winning architectural excellence combined with a personally motivated developer influence.

In 2010, we saw completion of an exclusive development named The Point. Winning Residential Development by the Australian Institute of Architects, its industry leading design and iconic position quickly accelerated the demand for this exciting Andrew Cortese designed landmark.

In a development known for its generous three bedroom (177 to 203 SQM) floor plans, an enthusiastic developer set aside a colossal 275 SQM layout. This impressive design went on to effortlessly win the Award for Excellence at the 2010 Master Builders Association Awards, and would never
